

Postgraduate conference 2016: International Education: Classroom Interactions

Monday 20th June 2016

Berrick Saul building, University of York, Harewood Way, Heslington, York YO10 5DD

On behalf of the Centre for Advanced Studies in Language and Communication (CASLC) research centre, the IE:CI committee welcomes papers on any education-related topic. Suggested topics may include (but are certainly not limited to):

- Social interaction
- Classroom discourse
- Applied linguistics
- Perceptions of language and identity
- Teaching methodology

Early career research students are especially welcome to submit an abstract, as this is an excellent chance to present your work in a constructive and supportive environment. Other students and researchers are also more than welcome to submit.

If you are interested in presenting a paper, please submit an abstract of up to 350 words (references are not included in the word count but are permitted) to <http://linguistlist.org/easyabs/IECI2016> by Friday, 22 April 2016, abstracts will be reviewed by Friday, 29 April 2016.

Please note: payment registration will be open shortly, attendees and presenters of White Rose Universities (Universities of Leeds, Sheffield & York) are eligible for a discounted registration fee of £7 (but will be required to show valid ID on arrival) all other universities are required to pay the full amount of £12.
